

How to protect your privacy on social media

Set your account to private so only your friends and family can see your feed.

Check your privacy settings once a month.

Set up two-factor authentication. Ask an adult if you need help.

Do not share or tag your location.

Use your settings so you decide who can follow you or be your friend.

www.interactionservices.org/online-safety-training