

Where to report & seek support

We all have a responsibility to report an incident online to ensure that we protect Young People Living with a Disability from negative experiences while online. This is a quick reference guide to know where to report an incident. It is essential to report the incident to platform that the incident occurred on and then you can follow up to report to the following organisation.

It's everyone responsibility to help create a safer internet, report today!

Office of the eSafety Commissioner - REPORT HERE

- Cyber Bullying of children - Seriously harmful online communication to or about a child or young person under 18.
- Image-based abuse - Sharing, or threatening to share, intimate images or videos of a person without their consent.
- Illegal and restricted online content - Content that shows or encourages the sexual abuse or exploitation of children, terrorist acts or other types of violent crimes or extreme violence – including murder, attempted murder, rape, torture, violent kidnapping and suicide.

Australian Centre to Counter Child Exploitation (ACCCE) - REPORT HERE

- Suspected online grooming or inappropriate contact
- An individual having a conversation with a child online and saying and doing inappropriate things or trying to meet in person
- Live streaming and consuming child sexual abuse material
- Coercing and blackmailing children for sexual purposes, including sexual extortion.

Scamwatch (ACCC) - REPORT HERE

- Report a Scam
- ScamWatch is run by the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC). It provides information to consumers and small businesses about how to recognise, avoid and report scams.

Australian Cyber Security Centre (ACSC) - REPORT HERE

- Report a cybercrime, incident or vulnerability
- ReportCyber is a national online system to securely report instances of cybercrime. It also provides advice to help people recognise and avoid common types of cybercrime. This could include crimes such as fraud, scams and harassment. Report to ReportCyber in the first instance, or your local police.

If your child is in immediate danger call triple zero 000 or call your local police.

Where to seek help?

24 hour counselling and support services

Kidshelpline - 1800 55 1800

The Kids Helpline is a 24-hour telephone service that is available for young people (aged between five and 25) who need advice, counselling or just someone National charity providing all Australians experiencing emotional distress with access to 24 hour crisis support and suicide prevention services.no problem is too big or too small. You can talk to the counsellors about anything and they will not criticise or judge you. You can also contact the Kids Helpline by email or online.

Headspace - Register to get started

Headspace offer support services to young people aged 12-25 years and provides a range of services to improve your health and wellbeing. Whether your child needs information or someone to talk to – we'll connect you with expert support for your mental health and wellbeing.

Lifeline - 131114

Lifeline is a national charity providing all Australians experiencing a personal crisis with access to 24 hour crisis support and suicide prevention

Visit ySafe's Online Safety Hub for additional Counselling & Support including education resources and mental health support.

www.interactionservices.org/online-safety-training